Challenge #1: Goal

My goal is to create a website where you can download my favorite books in PDF or E-Book format for free and provide some information about the books and the author. Also, I want to create a personal website where I can share the books that I've read and provide some reviews about them. The website will look like the photo below.